THE GOVERNMENT FLOWER GROUNDS .- Strolling into the Government flower garden opposite the Capitol, we spent a few moments in surveying these grounds so tastefully laid out, and rapidly these grounds so tastellily laid out, and rapidly supproaching that perfection and beauty, which at no very distant day, will render them one of the most instructive and favorite resorts in the Metropolis. Beautiful walks bordered with trees so-climated from every region, and traversing meadows enamelied with rarest flowers, delight the eye on every side. About the centre of the garden a curiously sculptured fountain scatters its brilliant seasy around. Close by are two causedous green areas around. curiously soulpured fountain scatters its brilliant appay around. Close by are two capacious green houses containing plants and flowers, transplanted from every land; the founers drapery of the Cypress of Chine, encircle the trembling Acades; while the stalward and broad leaved banana seems to vis with the towering plantain tree in climbing to the clouds. The neatness, order and taste displayed in all parts of the grounds redomn much to the praise of the persons in charge.
